DEFENDANTS' JOINT OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFFS' FIRST AMENDED EXHIBIT LIST

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COME NOW, Defendants in the above entitled and numbered cause, and file and serve their Joint Objections to Plaintiffs' First Amended Exhibit List [Doc. #583-2] as follows:

I.

BACKGROUND

There are nine distinct sets of Plaintiffs in this lawsuit. [Doc. #183 at 1]. Those nine Plaintiffs complain about care provided at four different hospitals by numerous different doctors, as follows [Id. at 13-55]:

- Barbara Meier complains about Dr. Tao's participation in her admission to Mayhill and the subsequent hospitalization and treatment by Dr. Faheem. [Id. at 13-20];
- The Hough Family complains about Madison Hough's Mayhill hospitalization and treatment by Dr. Faheem. [Id. at 20-24];
- Sandra Stokes complains about her Mayhill hospitalization and treatment by Dr. Faheem [Id. at 24-25, 83];
- Yolanda McPherson complains about care by Wendell Quinn, Dr. Buttar's participation in her transfer to Millwood and the subsequent hospitalization and care by Dr. Mehta. [Id. at 25-27];

- Troy Harvey complains of care by Jan Arnett [sic], Dr. Tao's participation in his transfer to Millwood and the subsequent hospitalization and care by Dr. Malone [Id. at 27-30, 64-65];
- Tiffany Young complains about Dr. Tao's participation in her transfer to Hickory Trail and the subsequent hospitalization and care at Hickory Trail [Id. at 30-37, 65];
- Bill Crowell complains about his hospitalization at Behavioral Hospital of Bellaire (Bellaire) and care by Dr. Rafique [Id. at 37-42];
- The Creels complain about Dr. Tom's participation in Ms. Creel's admission to Bellaire and the subsequent hospitalization by Dr. Rafique [Id. at 42-52, 66], and;
- Jalisa Green complains about Dr. Tao's participation in her transfer to Millwood and the subsequent hospitalization and care by Dr. Mehta [Id. at 52-55].

In accordance with the current schedule set by the Court, on January 29, 2020, in connection with submission of the Joint Pretrial Order, Plaintiffs provided the Court and the parties their Exhibit List [Doc. #508-1]. This Exhibit List was 150 pages long and designated 1,333 exhibits that total close to, if not more than, 40,000 pages.

Included as exhibits were 56 audio and video files encompassing countless hours of testimony Plaintiffs plan on presenting to the jury. [Doc. #508-1: Exhibits 7-29, 199-201, 317-338, 671, 1263, and 1272-1280]. Included as exhibits were many statutes (for example Exhibit 68 is 4,833-pages consisting of the entire Texas Health & Safety Code), more than 3,500 pages of materials related to Texas Senate Bill 205, complete sets of the policies and procedures and Medical Staff Bylaws of Bellaire, Hickory Trail, Mayhill, and Millwood Hospitals (totaling more than 5,500 pages), as well as in excess of 100 pages of authorizations from Plaintiffs allowing their employment, tax, and medical records to be obtained. [Doc. #508-1: Exhibits 82-88, 289-302]. Plaintiffs also designated as exhibits more than 400 pages of news articles and other materials that are not admissible, but that might be argued to be learned treatises, periodicals, or pamphlets that fall within the hearsay exception under Rule 803(18) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. [Doc.

#508-1: See e.g. Exhibits 35, 51, 61, 62, 64, 67, 77, 81, 177, 192, 195, 232, 234, 239, 251, 254, 259, 304, 312, 416, 425, 427, 429, 414-443, 445-447, 474, 475, 478, 528, 539, 601, 669].

Defendants conferred with Plaintiffs' counsel on multiple occasions about the various issues and objections discussed above, including discussions via email, telephone and an in-person conference on February 18, 2020 following the deposition of Verne Meier. On the afternoon of February 24, 2020, Plaintiffs provided Defendants with a "proposed amended exhibit list." 1,333 items are still listed, but Plaintiffs withdrew more than 800 of the exhibits initially listed. That still left almost 500 exhibits Plaintiffs intend to offer at trial. At 5:35 p.m. the evening of February 26, 2020, Plaintiffs filed with the Court and served this "proposed" list as their First Amended Exhibit List. [Doc. #583-2].

Despite Defendants' good faith effort to confer with Plaintiffs' counsel and resolve their disputes with Plaintiffs' trial exhibit list, many issues remain in Plaintiffs' amended list. For example, many of Plaintiffs' exhibits are still not identified with sufficient particularity so as to allow Defendants to lodge appropriate objections. Instead, they are marked "NOT LABELED" with no reference as to when, where or if they were produced. Until the unlabeled exhibits are properly identified and provided to Defendants, as Plaintiffs have agreed to do, Defendants are unable to properly lodge objections.

Moreover, the vast majority of the exhibits listed in the amended exhibit list still have extremely limited admissibility to the extent they might be admissible. For example, documents related to Barbara Meier's claim are irrelevant and inadmissible as to Defendants Jan Arnette, Wendell Quinn, Behavioral Hospital of Bellaire, Millwood Hospital, Hickory Trail Hospital, Behavioral Health Connections, Dr. Mehta, Dr. Malone, Dr. Rafique, Ms. Yao, Dr. Buttar, and Dr. Tom since Meier asserts no claim against these Defendants. [See Doc. #183 at 13-20, #508 at 6].

In an effort to bring some order to this chaos, the Defendants by Plaintiff – based on Plaintiffs’ contentions in the Joint Final Pre-trial Order [Doc. #508] – are:

1. Meier: Mayhill, Dr. Faheem, Chang Defendants¹, Dr. Tao and UHS. [Id. at 6].
2. Hough: Mayhill, Dr. Faheem, UHS and Chad Ellis. [Id. at 8].
3. Young: Hickory Trail, Chang Defendants, Dr. Tao, and UHS. [Id. at 12].
4. Stokes: Mayhill, Dr. Faheem, UHS and Behavioral Health Connections. [Id. at 9].
5. McPherson: Millwood, Dr. Mehta, Chang Defendants, Dr. Buttar, UHS, Behavioral Health Connections and Quinn. [Id. at 11].
6. Harvey: Millwood, Dr. Malone, Chang Defendants, Dr. Tao, UHS, Behavioral Health Connections and Ms. Arnett [sic]. [Id. at 7].
7. Crowell: Bellaire, Dr. Rafique and UHS. [Id. at 10].
8. Creel: Bellaire, Dr. Rafique, Chang Defendants, Dr. Tom, and UHS. [Id. at 13].
9. Green: Millwood, Dr. Mehta, Chang Defendants, Dr. Tao, UHS, and Behavioral Health Connections. [Id. at 10-11].

Conversely, the Plaintiffs by Defendant are:

1. UHS Defendants: All Plaintiffs – Meier, Harvey, Hough, Stokes, Crowell, Green, McPherson, Young and Creel.
2. Chang Defendants: Meier, Harvey, McPherson, Green, Young and Creel.
3. Behavioral Health Connections: Harvey, Stokes, McPherson and Green.
4. Mayhill Hospital: Meier, Hough and Stokes.
5. Dr. Faheem: Meier, Hough and Stokes.
6. Millwood: Harvey, McPherson and Green.
7. Dr. Mehta: McPherson and Green.
8. Dr. Malone: Harvey.

¹ The term “Chang Defendants” includes Dr. Yupo Jesse Chang, Universal Physicians, P.A., Dr. Says, LLC, MD Reliance, Inc., and Officewinsome, LLC.

9. Bellaire Hospital: Crowell and Creel.
 10. Dr. Rafique: Crowell and Creel.
 11. Hickory Trail: Young.
 12. Dr. Tao: Meier, Harvey, Green and Young.
 13. Dr. Tom: Creel.
 14. Dr. Buttar: McPherson.
 15. Mr. Quinn: McPherson.
 16. Ms. Arnett [sic]: Harvey.
- [Id. at 6-13].

To preserve their objection to the admission of irrelevant and inadmissible evidence at trial, Defendants advise and inform the Court and Plaintiffs of the following with respect to Plaintiffs' First Amended Exhibit List.

1. Mayhill:

Mayhill objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Meier, Hough or Stokes and related to any claim other than Meier, Hough or Stokes' claim against it because under Rule 402 of the FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE (Rule 402) that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 of the FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE (Rule 403) any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Mayhill objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Meier, Hough and Stokes in a single trial against it because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against it is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiffs' claims against it and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiffs' claims against it might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

2. Dr. Faheem:

Dr. Faheem objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Meier, Hough or Stokes and related to any claim other than Meier, Hough or Stokes' claim against her because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Dr. Faheem objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Meier, Hough and Stokes in a single trial against her because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against her is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiffs' claims against her and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiffs' claims against her might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

3. Millwood:

Millwood objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Harvey, McPherson or Green and related to any claim other than Harvey, McPherson or Green's claim against it because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Millwood objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Harvey, McPherson and Green in a single trial against it because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against it is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiff's claims against her and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiff's claims against her might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

4. Dr. Mehta:

Dr. Mehta objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than McPherson or Green and related to any claim other than McPherson or Green's claim against her because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Dr. Mehta objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs McPherson and Green in a single trial against her because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against her is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiff's claims against her and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiff's claims against her might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

5. Dr. Malone:

Dr. Malone objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Harvey and related to any claim other than Harvey's claim against him because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

6. Bellaire:

Bellaire objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Crowell or Creel and related to any claim other than Crowell or Creel's claim against it because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Bellaire objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Crowell and Creel in a single trial against it because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against him is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiff's claims against it and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiff's claims against him might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

7. Dr. Rafique:

Dr. Rafique objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Crowell or Creel and related to any claim other than Crowell or Creel's claim against him because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Dr. Rafique objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Crowell and Creel in a single trial against him because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against him is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiff's claims against him and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiff's claims against him might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

8. Hickory Trail:

Hickory Trail objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Young and related to any claim other than Young's claim against it because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

9. Chang Defendants:

Chang Defendants object to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Meier, Harvey, Green, McPherson, Young or Creel and related to any claim other than Meier, Harvey, Green, McPherson, Young or Creel's claim against them because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Chang Defendants object to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Meier, Harvey, Green, McPherson, Young and Creel in a single trial against them because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against them is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiffs' claims against them and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiffs' claims against them might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

10. Dr. Tao:

Dr. Tao objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Meier, Harvey, Young or Green and related to any claim other than Meier, Harvey, Young or Green's claim against him because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Dr. Tao objects to the to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Meier, Harvey, Young and Green in a single trial against him because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against her is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiffs' claims against him and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiffs' claims against him might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

11. Dr. Tom:

Dr. Tom objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Creel and related to any claim other than Creel's claim against him because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

12. Ms. Yao:

Yao objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Creel and to any claim other than Creel's claim against her because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

13. Behavioral Health Connections:

Behavioral Health Connections objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Harvey, Stokes, McPherson or Green and related to any claim other than Harvey, Stokes, McPherson or Green's claim against it because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

Behavioral Health Connections objects to the admission of evidence related to Plaintiffs Harvey, Stokes, McPherson and Green in a single trial against it because under Rule 402 evidence related to one's Plaintiff's claim against it is irrelevant as to the other Plaintiffs' claims against it and because under Rule 403 any probative value the other Plaintiffs' claims against it might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

14. Dr. Buttar:

Dr. Buttar objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than McPherson and to any claim other than McPherson's claim against her because that evidence is irrelevant under Rule 402 and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

15. Mr. Quinn:

Quinn objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than McPherson and to any claim other than McPherson's claim against him because that evidence is irrelevant under Rule 402 and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

16. Ms. Arnett [sic]:

Arnett objects to the admission of any evidence related to any Plaintiff other than Harvey and to any claim other than Harvey's claim against her because under Rule 402 that evidence is irrelevant and because under Rule 403 any probative value that evidence might have is substantially outweighed by a danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues and misleading the jury.

In the event the Court admits such irrelevant and inadmissible exhibits, those Defendants to which the exhibits are irrelevant and inadmissible request a limiting instruction be issued as provided for in Rule 105 of the FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE.

Defendants reserve the right to make further objections at the time of trial.
